

Arteritz – A Creation by Zo0000Z Roland Zulehner

About the Character: Arteritz Arteritz is a unique and imaginative figure born from the creative mind of artist and author Zo0000Z Roland Zulehner. Described as “Die Kunst, die aus der Erde wächst” (the art that grows from the earth), Arteritz embodies a living fusion of nature, creativity, and vibrant expression. This character represents the organic emergence of art — rooted in the ground, reaching toward color and life, intertwining image and text into a single, breathing entity.

Arteritz is not merely a static figure but a symbolic presence: a growing, evolving form that reflects Zulehner’s philosophy that art needs no reason — it simply dances, blooms, and leaves traces for others to follow.

About the Author: Zo0000Z Roland Zulehner Zo0000Z Roland Zulehner (born January 11, 1974, in Neresheim, Germany) is a contemporary German artist, painter, designer, and author known for his explosive use of color, abstract expressionism, and playful, emotional storytelling. Working primarily in acrylics on canvas, he creates vibrant, dynamic works that blend abstraction, portraiture, fantasy, and everyday inspiration.

Under his artistic alias Zo0000Z, he has built an international presence with a signature style that celebrates “Dancing Colours” and the belief that “Art never needs a Reason.” His motto — “Leave a trace I can follow” — runs through both his visual art and written work.

Roland Zulehner lives and works in Heidenheim, Germany, often collaborating artistically with Mumzy Maria (forming the duo Mumzy & Zo0000Z). His paintings have been featured in exhibitions, online galleries (such as TRiCERA, Loupe Art, Fine Art America), and publications.

In addition to his visual art, Zulehner is an author who writes poetry, short texts, reflections, and experimental books — often intertwining words and images. His writing echoes the same vivid, free-spirited energy found in his canvases.

Artistic & Literary Philosophy

For Zo0000Z Roland Zulehner, art and writing are inseparable ways of living colorfully and consciously. Whether through brushstrokes or words, he invites viewers and readers to discover beauty in chaos, emotion in movement, and meaning without explanation. Arteritz is one of his most poetic manifestations — a figure that grows, transforms, and reminds us that creativity is alive, rooted, and unstoppable.

Overview

Sportwerk Giengen operates as a multifaceted venue that goes beyond traditional sports clubs by integrating health, culture, and community engagement. Housed at Riedstraße 20, the facility includes training areas for various disciplines, a bistro, and spaces for events. It is managed under the SKG Giengen (likely standing for Sport- und Kultur Gemeinschaft Giengen), focusing on creating a welcoming environment where talents and skills from diverse backgrounds can intersect and benefit one another.<sup>[1]</sup>

The center's offerings include:

- Fitness and therapy equipment
- Sauna and relaxation areas
- Bodystretch and wellness classes
- Rhythmic sports gymnastics
- Pole acrobatics
- Tennis
- Muay Thai
- Karate
- Company sports programs (Betriebssport)

These activities cater to both recreational and competitive levels, promoting physical health, social interaction, and personal development.[3][4]

What the Sportclub Stands For

Sportwerk Giengen stands for integration, diversity, and holistic well-being. Its mission is to create a space that transcends mere sports offerings, fostering community among people of all ages and backgrounds. By combining broad health and fitness programs with elite sports training, the club promotes physical activity as a means of personal growth and social cohesion.

Key values include:

- Inclusivity: Welcoming participants from beginners to advanced athletes, including children, adults, and seniors.
- Innovation in Sports: Challenging stereotypes, such as those in pole sports, by emphasizing athleticism, strength, and artistry over misconceptions.
- Cultural Enrichment: Incorporating elements of art, music, and crafts to provide a well-rounded experience.
- Community Building: Encouraging mutual learning and talent sharing to build a "pool of abilities" that benefits everyone involved.

The club actively works to dismantle prejudices in emerging sports like pole acrobatics, highlighting their benefits for body and mind while contributing to the global growth of competitive scenes.[2][1]

Big Events

Sportwerk Giengen hosts and participates in various events that blend sports, culture, and community activities. These gatherings often attract local residents and visitors, promoting the club's inclusive ethos.

Notable events include:

- Familien Flohmarkt: A family flea market held on October 19, 2025, at the club's premises, encouraging community interaction and recycling.[5]
- Tanz & Akrobatik Show: Performances featuring dance and acrobatics, such as the show at the 2024 young cultural festival "Wir sind hier und jetzt" on October 19, 2024, in Giengen's Michaelskirche.[6]
- Giengen blüht auf: Participation in this local fair with action-packed, interactive sports demonstrations, emphasizing movement and fun for all ages.[7]
- Pole Sport Workshops and Competitions: Regular sessions and events that contribute to the growing pole sports scene, including training for international competitions.[2]
- Photo Actions and Community Days: Creative events like the 2025 photo session on May 28, capturing fun moments at the club, often with artistic elements.[8]

These events underscore the club's role in local cultural life, often collaborating with other organizations for broader impact.
